Completely Healthy Mouth

Your mouth is a window on your general health. In fact, it has been estimated that more than 120 diseases can be identified by dentists. But there's more – your oral health can also adversely affect your overall health. Gum disease can arrive without symptoms, at any age, and will affect virtually everyone during their lifetime. You may be at greater risk of gum disease if it runs in your family, you have an existing immune disease, if you take certain medications, or you are under stress. Don't take health risks when gum disease is preventable, treatable, and sometimes reversible. We have cleaning appointments available for you – call today!

We all love to give and receive smiles. Your team at Heritage Dental is proud to help you put your best smile forward!
